⚡ Special Note (For Copier users) ⚡

- If you're using 0.01 lot size which is the lowest lot size, so when a partial close or half close command will be sent, your whole trade will be closed. As 0.01 lot can not be closed half or partial.
- If you're using 0.02 or 0.03 lot size which is also a bit low lot size, then the copier can only take close half & close partial command but won't be able to follow full close update as there'll be no lot left to trade.
- If you're using 0.04 lot size or above, then the copier follows all the trade updates according to our VIP channels. (But keep in mind that the copier will fully close the trade when the "small lot holder can full close" update is sent).

These are our recommended lot sizes which are based on our trade management & signal frequency. You're free to choose whichever lot size you'd like to trade, that's totally up to you.

✅ Once you get update SL to Entry, always move your SL to Entry price.

- Let's say for EURUSD your entry price was 1.1850 (Buy order) and SL was 1.1820, once you get the update of "move SL to Entry", you must change your SL from 1.1820 to 1.1850 (which is your entry price).

✅ Always add spread with SL and TP

🚫 DO NOT ENTER OLD TRADES, WAIT FOR NEW SIGNAL

Close Half

What Does Close Half Means?

📌 Close Half means you need to close half of your running lot. Example: You opened a trade with 0.04 lot size, once you get an update of close half that means you need to close half of your running lot. Which is $(0.04/2) = 0.02$ and let another 0.02 run.

Move SL to Entry

What Does Move SL to Entry Means?

📌 Let's say you received a signal like this

EURAUD Buy: 1.6150

SL: 1.6100

TP: 1.6255

Once you get an update of Move SL to Entry that means you need to change your SL from 1.6100 to your entry price 1.6150.

So your new SL will be 1.6150

Add Spread with SL

What Does Add Spread with SL Mean?

From your MT4 terminal and MT4 app you can add spread of each pair. Based on the broker it may vary from 0.05 to 10 Pips.

📌 Let's say we send a signal: EURUSD BUY 1.2050

SL: 1.2020

TP: 1.2080

If your broker spread is 2 pips then your SL will be for BUY ORDER (SL-2 PIPS)=1.2018

For SELL ORDER (SL+2 PIPS)
